Sixty per cent of business offices are running along from year to year with the same old harrying confused appliances they did a dozen years ago while brainy men have worked night and day to devise methods and means of systematizing and simplifying.

FIGHTING OF FORCES AT OJINAGA RESUMED.

Federals Have No Opportunity for Further Retreat.

Frenzied Retreat Caused by News of Monday's Defeat.

PRESDIO, Texas, Dec. 30.—Fighting between Mexican Federals and Constitutionalists at Ojinaga, Mexico, was resumed this morning. The rebels advanced upon the Federal trenches, where the remnants of Huerta's army were in northern Mexico had taken refuge after its disastrous defeat of last night.

A desultory fire, opened by the rebels who appeared within sight of the village in increased numbers, indicated that the rebel forces intended to push the fight right into the Federal stronghold. The Federals, however, apparently without hope of repulsing the attacking force, only a few shots came from the Huertista lines in the early stages of today's fighting.

As viewed from the American side the situation of the Federals seemed desperate as they had no opportunity for further retreat, except across the river, unless they should try the hazardous alternative of a forced march into the state of Coahuila.

General Ortega, commanding the Constitutionalists, has received orders to show no mercy to captured Federals, and to summarily execute Generals Salazar, Orozco, Rojas and Almaraz, commanding volunteers, it was said.

The United States cavalry was patrolling the border again today, watching for any Federals who might attempt to cross to the American side. The Federals sent messengers across the river this morning with dispatches to the war department at Mexico City.

It was reported that Ortega had been re-informed, so that the attacking army outnumbered the defenders. The Federal army of 4,000 at Ojinaga, opposite here, was put to flight last night by 4,200 Constitutionalists sent by General Villa from Chihuahua. In the darkness many of the Federals crossed the river to the American side, but all except the wounded were forced back by the United States troops.

The final rout was preceded by a three-hour battle, begun after dark, in which the rebels marching through the deep canyons south of Ojinaga completely wiped out the federal outposts. The news of the defeat at Ojinaga was received at La Alamo, giving the rebels an unobstructed pass to within firing distance of Ojinaga itself, caused a frenzied retreat among the Federals.

A mutiny developed in the Ojinaga Seris, General Salazar and General Orozco, believing their men were about to desert, stood with drawn revolvers, threatening to shoot those who did not obey.

The badly wounded were the only ones allowed to remain on this side and these were cared for by Dr. Burdette of the United States army. The killed on both sides were small, but many were reported injured.

HAD INFLAMMATION OF LUNGS. Queen Mother Sophia of Sweden Dies in Stockholm.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 30.—Queen Mother Sophia of Sweden died here today in her seventy-eighth year. She had suffered acutely for several days from inflammation of the lungs. Her Majesty had been practically an invalid for more than a quarter of a century. She was subject to melancholia, which necessitated a constant watch being kept on her by her medical attendants. She took very little part in court functions, devoting herself, whenever her invalid permitted it, to enterprises of a religious nature. She was a great sympathizer with the Salvation Army, whose operations in Scandinavia she followed with intense interest. She was also a strong advocate of temperance.

The late queen mother was a princess of Nassau and was married to King Oscar II of Sweden in 1872. The royal couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1907, just six months before King Oscar's death.

Her Majesty leaves a large fortune, most of which it is understood, will go to her younger son, Oscar, who renounced his rights to the throne in order to marry Miss Elinor Munk, his mother's maid of honor. This marriage was the cause of the only difference which ever arose between King Oscar II and Queen Sophia the latter encouraging the union.

TURNED OVER TO GOVERNMENT. Mounting of Guns to be Begun on Torpedo Destroyer Parker.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—The new twin screw torpedo boat destroyer Parker, the largest of its class, and called the "destroyer of destroyers," has been formally turned over to the government by the builders here. The work of mounting the guns will begin at once at the Philadelphia navy yard. The Parker will be equipped with four 4-inch rapid fire guns and four twin 18-inch torpedo tubes. When this is completed a company of 100 men, including four officers, will be assigned to the ship.

IN LINE FOR PROMOTION. Twenty-Three Enlisted Men Pass Examination for Naval Machinists.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Twenty-three out of forty enlisted men in the navy have successfully passed the examination for machinists, with places then in line for promotion after six years' service to the rank of chief machinist. This gives them a possible commission as ensign and puts them in line for promotion through all the naval grades to rear admiral.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED. Jurors in Schmidt Case Deadlocked on Question of His Sanity.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The jury in the case of Hans Schmidt, the priest who killed Anna Amuller after having been out since 1:25 p. m. yesterday, failed to reach an agreement up to 11 o'clock today. It was reported that the jurors were hopelessly deadlocked on the question of the prisoner's sanity. Schmidt spent a restless night.

Judge Foster had the jury brought into court about noon in response to a request from the foreman. One of the members was sick and wanted a doctor. For a time it looked as if the sick might cause a mistrial, but the sick member quickly responded to the treatment and the jury went back to their room.

DENSMORE IN CALUMET. Fears of Radical Action Cause Extraordinary Precautions to be Taken.

CALUMET, Mich., Dec. 30.—Under surface matters rather than actual developments marked the copper mine strike situation today. Fears of radical action have caused some extraordinary precautions to be taken. Children of members of the Citizens' Alliance, who attended entertainments under the leadership of ministers, who have lost their lot with that of the Alliance, so with armed officers stationed at approaches to the buildings.

The coroner's inquest into the Christmas Eve woman scare who heard two shots fired in the height of the panic, but the grand jury found no corruption. The grand jury resumed its sessions in Houghton, giving no indication as to what subjects it intended to take up today.

John B. Densmore, solicitor of the Department of Labor, arrived here from Washington today for attendance at the convention of the copper miners' strike.

RECEIVERS NAMED FOR THE SIEGEL STORES.

Thrown Into Bankruptcy in a Friendly Proceeding.

Christmas Business Poor and Banking Credit Impaired.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Six enterprises controlled by the Siegel Stores Corporation, in this city and in Boston, were thrown into bankruptcy today in a friendly proceeding instituted in the federal courts. The concerns had an annual gross business estimated at $10,000,000, but it is understood that their Christmas business did not come up to expectations and they found themselves hard pressed by curtailment of banking credit. The failure had been discounted in the financial district and had no effect on the stock market.

The companies for which receivers were named are the Fourteenth Street store, New York; the Simpson-Crawford Company, New York; Henry Siegel & Co., wholesalers, New York; Merchants' Express Company, New York; and Henry Siegel Company, Boston, a department store.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in New York City, which has jurisdiction of the bankruptcy proceedings, has appointed receivers for the Siegel Stores Corporation. The receivers are: Henry Siegel & Co., wholesalers, New York; Merchants' Express Company, New York; and Henry Siegel Company, Boston, a department store.

The Siegel Stores Corporation was incorporated in Delaware in 1903. Henry Siegel is president and has been active manager of the stores. The gross business of the corporation has been about $10,000,000 annually. The Vogel referred to in the statement of counsel is Frank A. Vogel of this city, who was associated with Siegel in the banking and wholesale end of the business.

The petition filed by the Siegel Stores Corporation charges that the various defendants would be called upon soon to meet heavy obligations and that creditors were pressing them; that a receivership was asked for to save the various companies from sheriff's sales and similar summary proceedings which would prevent them from continuing business.

The Siegel Stores Corporation, the Simpson-Crawford Company, the which has brought the action against Fourteenth Street store, the Merchants' Express Company and Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel, doing a wholesale and banking business, are the defendants. The petition also charged that the defendants would be called upon soon to meet heavy obligations and that creditors were pressing them; that a receivership was asked for to save the various companies from sheriff's sales and similar summary proceedings which would prevent them from continuing business.

ANCILLORY RECEIVERS NAMED. Appointed on Petition of the Siegel Stores Corporation.

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Ancillary receivers were appointed in the United States district court today for six corporations in which Henry Siegel is a heavy owner, on the petition of the Siegel Stores Corporation.

The proceedings here followed the appointment in New York yesterday of William A. Mander and John S. Shepard, Jr., as receivers of Simpson-Crawford Company, New York; Henry Siegel Company, Boston; and the Merchants' Express Company, New York. At the same time Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel, who are president and treasurer, respectively, of the Siegel Stores Corporation, were named as ancillary receivers here.

The Siegel Stores Corporation is a New York corporation. The petition filed here that Henry Siegel Company is unable either to meet its obligations or to secure credit to carry on its business. The petitioning corporation declares that Simpson-Crawford Company owes it $25,000, the Merchants' Express Company owes it $25,000, and the Siegel Stores Corporation owes it $25,000. No further statement of assets or liabilities is available here.

Funeral of Mrs. Sally Sherman—Aquidneck Grange Elects Officers.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]
Funeral services for Mrs. Sally Sherman, widow of Peleg T. Sherman, were held Monday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor, Rev. E. E. Wells, advanced to the chancel, reading "I am the resurrection and the life," followed by the bearers—James H. Barker, Ashton C. Barker, Millard F. Smith, and Fred Smith—carrying the casket, which was covered with flowers. A large number of relatives and friends attended. Scripture was read by Rev. Mr. Wells and prayer offered. Her interest in people, in all life, he said, never flagged, and her attachment for this church, where she joined in 1888, continued unabated. In closing, Rev. Mr. Wells gave Lucian C. Clarke's poem, "O Rare Soul," from "April Days," followed by prayer, and the benediction.

He also conducted the committal service at the grave in the adjoining cemetery, where the body was laid in the Sherman lot beside that of her husband. There was a profusion of flowers, among them a flat bouquet of pink carnations with broad white ribbons bearing the letters "W. C. T. U.," of which organization Mrs. Sherman had long been a member.

The closing meeting of the year was held by Aquidneck Grange at the town hall Monday evening. Worthy Master Mrs. May Chase Spooner presiding. The change in dates was due to the fact that Christmas this year came on the fourth Thursday, the regular night. The main business was the annual election of officers, which resulted as follows:

Worthy Master—Mrs. May Chase Spooner.
Overseer—Mr. John Nicholson.
Spectator—Clifton B. Ward.
Secretary—William C. Spooner.
Assistant Secretary—Joseph Murphy.
Chaplain—Rev. E. E. Wells.
Steward—Mrs. William C. Spooner.

Treasurer—Henry C. Sherman.
Gate Keeper—John Henry Anthony.
Caretaker—Miss Marie Vanhook.
Flora—Miss Agnes Murphy.
Pomona—Miss Helen Coggeshall.
Lady Assistant Steward—Miss Sarah A. E. Peckham.

Mr. James T. Barker, whose term on the executive committee expired, was re-elected for three years. The remaining members are Dennis J. Murphy 1915 and J. Willis Peckham 1916.

Mr. Henry C. Sherman, who was unanimously re-elected treasurer, has served continuously in this office since the formation of the order in 1893. The setting chaplain, Mrs. Ellina Clarke Peckham, who was also a charter member, had held her office a long period.

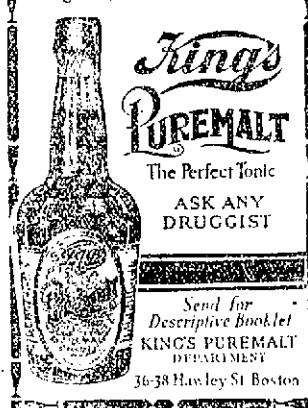

Mr. Joseph Murphy and Miss M. May Ward, who is at home for the holidays, acted as tellers.
The installation will be conducted by Mrs. Hertha Spooner of East Greenwich, formerly a charter member of this Grange, the first meeting in January.

At the conclusion of the business, at 11 o'clock, tables previously prepared were brought in and a quoniam chowder with cake and coffee was served, under the direction of the hostesses—Mrs. Dennis J. Murphy and Mrs. William J. Peckham, assisted by Mr. Murphy, Mr. Peckham, his two daughters, Ivah and Dorothy, and Miss Eliza M. Peckham. The gathering broke up at a late hour. There was a good attendance.

Many intelligent and self-denying men and women are greatly concerned in efforts to reform the vicious criminal. With all the evil that does and with all the burden that he directly and indirectly imposes upon society, it may be doubted whether the vicious criminal does one tenth of the mischief or causes one tenth of the misery that is done and caused by the drunken fool.

"Acid Mouth" Results in Tooth Decay

And have you "acid mouth," you ask? Unless you're one of five out of one hundred. Why? Because authorities find that 95% of us have this acid result of fermenting food particles.

Pebeco Tooth Paste

overcomes "acid mouth." It counteracts its attacks on the thin, precious enamel of the teeth. It is a great help to you in preserving this intact, and so preserves the soft, inside tooth-substance from the bacteria of decay.

Pebeco doesn't stop at tooth-saving. It's just as good at cleansing, whitening and restoring the naturally brilliant, lustrous surface that all well-kept teeth ought to have. Try it.

Sardines with Rice.

Open can of sardines, remove fish carefully and add to a frying pan adding one half of a bay leaf and one-half a teaspoonful of curry powder. Thicken with a little cornstarch rubbed to a paste with melted butter. In five minutes add the fish and draw to one side of the fire where they will brown through. Serve on a platter with a border of boiled rice.

Banana Sponge.

Soak one-half box of gelatine in one-half cupful of cold water. Make a boiled custard with one and one-fourth cupfuls of milk, three eggs, one cupful of sugar and a pinch of salt. Add soaked gelatine, stir until dissolved, strain and set aside until cold and beginning to thicken. Beat in two tablespoonsful lemon juice and one-half dozen bananas reduced to a pulp by pressing through a sieve or putting through the finest cutter of the food chopper. When it again begins to thicken stir in lightly cold cream and thick cream whipped to a solid froth. Turn into a wetted mold and set away until firm.

PERSONALS.

John Ritter, aged 65, who is credited with inventing the cash register is dead at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Cooper, in Dayton, Ohio.

Rev. J. J. Meade, associate editor of the Universalist Leader, dropped dead in a Boston store Monday night. Six weeks ago he was called to fill the pulpit of the First Universalist Church of Everett, to succeed Rev. George Hamilton who dropped dead in Copley square.

Colonel William C. Gorgas, the army medical officer who made the Panama Canal Zone habitable for white men, that the canal might be completed by the greatest engineering feat of the times, is foremost among those likely to be appointed surgeon general of the army to succeed Dr. General George H. T. Tamm, who died Saturday. It had originally been planned to promote him to be surgeon general upon General Tamm's retirement next June. The appointment lies entirely with President Wilson.

Almost on the eve of his retirement as police commissioner of New York, Rhineland Waldo was the guest of honor at a dinner given by 500 citizens Monday night. A few hours before the banquet he sent his resignation to Mayor Kline, to take effect not later than midnight, December 31. It had been generally accepted in political circles that John T. Mitchell, as mayor after the first of the year, would appoint a successor to the commissioner. The frequency with which police commissioners have succeeded one another in recent years was alluded to by Mr. Waldo in a speech in which he defended New York's 11,000 police as honest.

BUILDING INSPECTOR SULLIVAN'S GOOD WORK.

To the Editor of the News:

It is to be hoped that the incoming government will follow the example set in recent years by re-electing Building Inspector Sullivan. During the year buildings to the value of $1,000,000 have been completed or under construction, which entailed a great deal of attention and the part of the inspector, and as yet there has not been any adverse criticism of his conscientious work. His close scrutiny has caused the building laws to be adhered to and the government will do well to leave undisturbed an officer whose the incumbent has been so generally satisfactory.

ON A FRIEND'S PASSING.

[Thomas Crawford Galtreth, in Lippincott's.]

The earth can renew her spring glories. But a friend gone comes back to us never.

The door of his heart-room clangs to and remains closed for ever and ever.

The chambers where friends dwell are numbered, so few are they in the world.

Another today becomes darkened, and friendship comes not for the questing.

Which one will be closed on the morrow? Will a month or a year shut another?

Then I pray: Take me, God, ere the last one, myself still a friend to some other.

FANCIES.

Old Santa Claus effaced each frown From all the faces that he knew. But cautiously forsook the town Before the various bills came due.

We are not all of us Samsons, so we had better be careful how we use the jawbone of an ass.—[Lippincott's.]

We should profit by our mistakes, but most of us would rather profit by the mistakes of others.—[Philadelphia Record.]

"Did you gain in weight after your hunting trip?"

"Only temporarily I went back as soon as the doctor removed the shot." —[Washington Star.]

"I suppose rum brought you here," said the prison warden.

"No rum," replied the prisoner. "It was a cup I didn't smell no rum of him." —[Philadelphia Record.]

"I don't see what claim you have for this accident insurance," said the agent.

"You were thrown out of a wagon, I admit, but on your own statement, you were not hurt."

"Well, wasn't it by the merest accident I escaped injury?" suggested the claimant. —[Puck.]

A man had been convicted for stealing and was brought before Judge Perkins. The judge was noted for his kind heart and his light sentences.

"Have you ever been sentenced to imprisonment before?" asked the judge not unkindly.

"No, never," exclaimed the man, suddenly and dramatically bursting into tears. "Never!"

"Well, well, don't cry, my man," said the judge. "It needn't trouble you. You're going to be." —[Lippincott's.]

A Really Tasteless

Castor Oil at Last

Good bye, drags and pills!

The perfect laxative has arrived—Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil—made tasteless by a method which chemists have tried to find for 2,000 years.

This is not a flavored, or disguised castor oil. It is just pure castor oil without taste or odor.

Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil is a better castor oil than the old evil tasting, oil smelling kind. While none of the taste remains, none of the good has been taken out. Kellogg's Tasteless operates quickly and freely, without griping, causes no gas, and does not turn the stomach. Children take it easily and retain it.

The drug stores have all been supplied. You have only to ask for Kellogg's Tasteless Castor Oil, 25c or 50c size. It is not sold in bulk. The trade mark is a green castor leaf on the label, bearing the Kellogg signature.

Made only by Spencer Kellogg & Sons, Inc., of Buffalo, dealers in vegetable oils for four generations.

HOURS AND EFFICIENCY.

Laws reducing factory working hours are about to go into effect in Connecticut and New Hampshire, and despatches from Plainfield and Nashua announce that wages will not be lowered. Daily and weekly wages will remain unchanged and the despatch from Plainfield says the rate of 26 1/2 of piece workers will be increased if the reduction of hours is found to diminish their earnings.

In regard to these piece workers the announcement shows that a small increase in wages is not to the manufacturers a sufficiently serious matter to provoke a strike. Of course, if the country were in the panic and depressed condition which Congressman Mann and some of the Republican newspapers represent, the manufacturers could not afford any increase in wages, no matter how small, and would be glad of a good excuse for sticking down their workers.
Their desire to keep the machinery going even if wages rise a little indicates that they are making some money; they are not down to bad rock yet.

The chances are that the reduction in working hours, even with a little increase in piece wages, in order to preserve the present level of earnings, will not result in added cost to the manufacturers. It looks to persons who have never invented the subject like ordinary arithmetic to say that people will produce in 55 hours only eleven-twelfths of what they would produce in 60 hours, and that a reduction of time from 60 to 55 hours a week means a decrease of 20 per cent in production. Whether it results in any reduction can be told only by experiment. Working hours have been changed from 12 to 10, and from 10 to 9, and in some cases from 9 to 8, without reducing production.
Not all the Lawrence manufacturers lowered wages when the law reduced working hours two or three a week, and those who did were forced to confess their mistake after a strike for restoring the wages and doing a little more than that—actually paying more than before the strike. The element of physical and mental fatigue must be taken into the account.

HARNED AND "UNEARNED" IN-COME.

We are having a good deal of curious political economy now. Some of it comes from young college professors, much of it from Congressmen who are trying to be thoroughly up-to-date or a little mite ahead, some of it from newspaper writers, who of course must be abreast of the times, and some of the most curious is written to newspapers by their readers.

A person who writes to a newspaper in a great city is troubled because the income tax makes no distinction between salary, which the recipient is presumed to earn, and the returns from an investment which this writer says he doesn't earn. His language is:
"If I get $5,000 a year from an investment, the assumption is that I have earned it at least, since an assumption holds good in 80 out of every 100 cases. If I derive $5,000 a year from investment, I am the most extensive and polite person concerned.
I do not earn one penny of it, except as far as a publisher may be said to earn his income."

If this were an individual vagary it would not be worth discussion, but there are many indications that it reflects the sort of thinking about property rights which has been spreading under the influence of some highly progressive politicians and some decidedly socialistic professors.
To begin with, there are people who find it as difficult to believe that anybody is really worth $5,000 as President Mellen has found it, since he last the New Haven road, to believe that anybody is worth $25,000, but that is only incidental.

To take the case supposed, a man is earning $5,000 a year. He may easily use it all up in 12 months, with bacon and eggs at their present altitude. Supporting his practice economy, lives on half his income and saves $2,500 a year. In four years he has saved $10,000 and there is a man who will gladly give $500 a year for that sum, because if he had more capital he could extend his business and make perhaps $1,500 a year more than he makes at present. Doesn't the man who saved $10,000 and rents it out for $500 a year earn that $500 in a perfectly real and true sense, and is a totally different person from that in which a gambler's winnings belong to him?

EXHAUSTING THE FORESTS.

"We use each year more than three times the wood grown each year in all our forests." That is the significant statement made by one whose business it is to keep informed as to the conditions in regard to the need of forestation, and it is based on exact knowledge of the situation. It brings home forcibly to the mind of an intelligent reader the importance of this subject and the strict duty which develops upon the government and all who are in any way concerned in the preservation or planting of forests, or are in a position such that they can exercise influence upon those whose acts affect the situation, to do their best to arouse attention to this matter and enforce the vital necessity of careful conservation of the timber already standing and faithful work in the planting of new forests. There is need of constant iteration of this situation and its seriousness, that the people may be awake to the conditions and act in accordance with the knowledge gained.

In view of the statement quoted, it is a pertinent question how long the forests of this country will last. That however, is difficult to answer definitely, but it is easy to reply that unless much work is done for the restoration of neglected forests and the planting of new ones the time when they will fall is not far distant. It is also easy to see that there is a practical certainty that within the next half-century there is bound to come a time when there will be a scarcity of timber amounting to a famine, even though production on a scientific basis is begun at once and continued with reasonable persistence on a comparatively extensive scale.

Those who have occasion to purchase lumber are well aware of the fact that it is much higher in price today than it was even less than 10 years ago. This is shown conclusively in the added cost of construction of houses, though of course not all of this is due to an advance in lumber, because almost all other commodities used in building have also been raised in price. The point is that the scarcity of lumber is already noticeable in higher cost in the market, and that this condition will increase rather than decline as the years pass unless much is done to offset it by the development of the forests and possible forest land, and even in spite of such efforts for a time until the new growth can be harvested. Wood is a product of slow growth and forests, planted today will not be ready for cutting for a number of years. There is special necessity, therefore, for promptness in efforts to meet the future situation. Most crops can be grown quickly and the security need be but for a year or less, but with wood the producer must wait for his crop to mature.

Under the conditions depicted it is not strange that a note of warning is sounded loud and often, that the forests must be preserved and new ones planted. Yet in spite of all these appeals the unnecessary destruction of timber is continued, and but little in comparison with the need is done to replace what is cut. The government is doing all it can with the funds allowed for this purpose, but more money should be given. States, too, are taking up the issue and doing something to stop the wanton destruction of forests, but more money for the work should be provided in the interest of the public welfare. Though the present condition is far from pleasing the outlook is much less promising, and there must be strenuous efforts for the protection and production of forests in the next half-century if wood is not to become a luxury of great cost.

Congressman Walbridge of Ohio proposes to reduce a re-election, saying:
"That man who wants to be intelligent, honest, has any business in Congress?" He says he went into the House thinking there might be a chance for an honest, wide-awake, frank and open business man in Congress, but "was quickly disillusioned." All he has done since he has been in Washington has been to sit around and try to look wise, and that's what any man has to do who isn't willing to barter his convictions for political expediency." A pretty severe arraignment of political leaders in Washington. Is it all so rather true, or is Walbridge disgruntled?

Another so-called friend is said to be willing to compare with the government, to prevent legal action against it, for violation of the Sherman law. The National Wholesale Jewelry Association and the National Association of Manufacturing Jewelers, the latter having headquarters in Providence, have agreed to the entry of a decree in the federal court, forbidding them to engage in certain transactions deemed by the district attorney in violation of the antitrust law. This seems to be an easy way out of the difficulty, and is inquestionably more satisfactory than a fine and imprisonment, if the trust is broken and stays broken.

New Jersey is now talking of adopting the California system of legislation. This provides for two sessions of the law-makers, the first to be devoted exclusively to the introduction of bills, and the second to their consideration and passage. The advantages of this arrangement is that three months intervene between the two sessions so that the people have ample opportunity to discuss every measure.

The year just closing has been the most successful for husbandry in the history of the United States. The products of the farms being $100,000,000,000 in crops, of which nearly $3,000,000,000 have been in cereals and more than $3,500,000,000 in animals sold and slaughtered. The value of the 1913 crops is twice as great as that of 1899, and substantially greater than 1912.

It is understood on excellent authority that the late Captain Joseph P. Cotton left among his papers a diary covering many years. Especially in these modern days, when men are so busy that few such documents are compiled, and coming from the pen of a man like Captain Cotton, it is safe to say that this diary would prove exceedingly interesting and valuable reading.

Secretary of the Interior Lane proposes to withdraw all lands of the public domain suspected of containing radium, that their precious deposits may be secured for the public good and not become the subject of private speculation. Radium is worth $150,000 a grain, and there are said to be only two grains of the perfect article in this country.

Now the oatmeal trust is to be prosecuted for violations of the Sherman anti-trust law. The Great Western Cereal, and the Quaker Oats companies are said to control 90 per cent of the interstate trade in oatmeal products.

The commission which is trying to determine the sanity or insanity of Harry K. Thaw proposes to hold a public hearing. This is too bad. The public has already heard all it needs to hear about this case.

DROP BEER FOR TEA.

Large Factories Throughout Germany Prohibit Drinking by Employees.

Not only has the Kaiser frowned on beer, if reports from Berlin are to be believed, but there is a general tendency, throughout Germany, according to United States Commercial Agent F. G. Bolles, to discourage the use of beer by factory employees during working hours.

According to Mr. Bolles, says, no factory prohibit beer drinking in the factory and provide their employees with tea at very low rates. One Berlin firm mentioned by Mr. Bolles which employs 3,000 men brews and sells ten millions of tea daily, and sells it at the rate of 2 pfennings (about 1/2 cent) per pound. This has practically eliminated the desire for beer, and it is estimated that the saving to the men in ten years will be about $152,000.

"Tea," continues Mr. Bolles, "may be had at any time, and the distribution made by trucks hauled about by cows. Coupon tickets are issued, and these are accepted in payment. A dining room is provided for the office force where a good lunch may be had for 60 pfennings (14 1/2 cents). Lunch is served from 11:45 to 1:15, and a half-hour day leave observed in all departments.
Sooty, black and white enameled troughs for washing are a part of the factory equipment.

"Boys are apprenticed for four years, the first six months being without pay. During the apprenticeship the boys are taught arithmetic, drawing and geometry.

"Various amusements are provided, among which are football, tennis and excursion parties to the country, which take place Sundays. The cost is shared equally by the firm and the employees.

"At the plant of the Heidelberg-Lorenz Cement Works a huge swimming tank, enclosed in a fine pavilion, has been provided for the use of the employees. This concern has also a fine rest hall, with stage and dancing floor, where the employees are encouraged to indulge in a kindergarten has been provided for the younger children. A brass band of about 25 pieces and singer-orchestra provide good music when occasion demands.

"These features may be found at nearly all the large establishments, and it is not unusual to see the entire working force housed in splendid dwellings, furnished at very nominal rents by the owners of the works.

PORTSMOUTH.
Rev. John Wadsworth Gives Historical Sketch of the Methodist Church.

(Regular correspondence of the News.)
Rev. John Wadsworth, at the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday morning celebrated the seventy-fifth year of the present building by giving a brief history gathered from historical records. A Methodist church was built in this town as early as 1793, or 1795 years ago. Among its first members were Matthew Cook and his wife, Mary; John Marie and his wife, Peter Barker and his wife, John Anthony, an exhorter and leader. Nathan Brownell, and Violet, a colored woman belonging to the family of Nathan Cook. Mrs. Cook lived in the old Bristol Perry house, which stood near the present house but nearer the church. This dwelling was visited by such men as Bishop Assury, Jesse Lee, John Chalmers and a number of others of honored memory. This house, the cradle of Methodism in Portsmouth, was in later years moved to the road leading to the Stone Bridges.

In 1838 the need of a new church was felt, as the one built in 1793, which stood on a lot opposite the present Portsmouth cemetery, had become ill fitted to meet the needs of the people. Rev. Jonathan Cook was appointed to this charge in 1838 and the same year the present church was built, and dedicated December 25. The trustees were Oliver Brownell, John B. Cook, John Tatham, Joseph B.
Cook, Benjamin Tatham, John S.
Belle, and Barzilla Fish. The dedication sermon was preached by Rev.
Thomas Crandall of Fall River, from Isaiah, LXI:16: "Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated so that no man went through thee, I will make an exuberant exuberance a joy of generations."

Captain Henry Church has arrived from North Carolina to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Horbert Chase, who have been living for several months with their daughter, Mrs. Anna Chase, on the East Main road, north of Sprague street, will move this week into their new home on the East Main road, north of the Middletown line, recently purchased of the heirs of his father, the late Constant W.
Chase.

Miss Fanny T. Clarke and her brother-in-law, Mr. Byron Randall, of Tulsa, N. Y., are visiting Mr. Randall's son, Mr. Roy Randall of Woonsocket.

Mr. Joseph Pacheco has returned from a visit of several days to Providence.

At the Christmas celebration of the Friends' Sunday School, held at the town hall, Mrs. William T. H. Sowa and not Mrs. Walter Sowa, was chairman of the committee. Mrs. William Lawrence, whose name was omitted, was a member of the committee.

Suits Very Heavy.

Middletown and Portsmouth figured in the district court this morning. Middletown with a cruelty to animals case. It appears that Manuel Souza shot a dog in the head. It was his own dog and he evidently intended to kill him, but he was not so good a shot as he thought and the dog did not die. That is why Agent Hazard was after him. Had he killed the dog there would have been no complaint. He made no defense, but said he did it and paid $12.60.

Prudence, town of Portsmouth, came up by continuance and the court decided as he had announced, that he found for the state in such case. The liquor license was ordered to be annulled, Meynahan was found guilty on the charge of selling and sentenced to $20 fine and costs and 10 days in jail, and on the nuisance case was bound over to the grand jury. He appealed on the sale case. The costs are about $50 in the nuisance case, $65.35 in the sale and $23.99 in the seizure case, a total of more than $140.

CHICAGO POLICE WOMAN AR-RESTS FIGHTER.

Mrs. Mary Boyd, one of Chicago's tough police women, is not a large woman, but she is muscular. One day last week she boarded a street car while a powerfully built man and the conductor were engaged in a fight about a transfer. Mrs. Boyd showed her star and separated the men, telling the passenger he was under arrest. When he persisted the officer she pulled him from the car, stood him against a post, and put the man in the patrol wagon. Mrs. Boyd rude to the station with her prisoner and preferred a charge of disorderly conduct against him.

CALIFORNIA MOUNTAIN PEAKS.

Things are wonderful principally by comparison. There are 60 or more lofty mountains in California rising more than 13,000 feet above sea level, which are not considered sufficiently noteworthy among all the surrounding wealth of mountain scenery to have even received names, according to the United States Geological Survey. Any one of these mountain peaks, if situated in the eastern part of the United States, would of course be visited by millions of people. But California has 70 additional mountain peaks more than 13,000 feet high which have been named, or 130 in all, as well as a dozen rising above 14,000 feet.

WOMEN PLAYERS PROTEST.

Stamina Rather Than Skill Required in Proposed Tennis Amendment.

Some of the leading women tennis players in the country have strongly protested against an amendment proposed by Miss Carrie B. Neely of Chicago, whereby women who are compelled to play three sets out of five in the final of tennis tournaments, instead of two out of three, as at present. Among those who think the change is undesirable because of the premium it places on stamina rather than skill are Mrs. T. C. Bundy, formerly Miss May Sutton; Mrs. George Whitman, formerly Miss Hazel Hotchkiss; Mrs. Marshall McLean, champion in 1908, and Miss Marie Wagner, national indoor champion. Prominent among Miss Neely's supporters are Mrs. E. F. Briggs, who at Dorothy Green was runner-up in the last national championship, and Mrs. W. H. Pouch, one-time title holder. The matter will come up for consideration at the annual meeting of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

OLD PORTSMOUTH.

Many Noted Colonial Residences in Quaint New Hampshire City.

Portsmouth, N. H., is a quaint old place of 13,000 population. The harbor has 47 to 75 feet of water at low tide. Of the many old colonial residences to be seen the most widely known are the following:

The Jackson house, erected in 1644 and known as the oldest house in Portsmouth, which in the opinion of experts will last for several more generations.

The Warner house, built in 1718 and known to be the oldest brick building in the city.

The Plummer house, which dates back to 1784 and was the birthplace of one of Portsmouth's favorite sons, Henry Clay Barnard.

The Earl of Halifax tavern is one of the most historical places in this part of America. It was here that many distinguished men of the revolutionary period were accustomed to meet for social entertainment and merry-making. The house was put up in 1770 and was visited by John Hancock in 1780. In 1789 President Washington visited Portsmouth and received many citizens at the famous old Quaker.

The Partingtonian mansion, where the parents of Benjamin P. Shillaber (Mr. Partington) lived in his early years.

The home of Charles Levi Woodbury, one of the remaining relics of earlier days.

The Lear house, where Tobias Lear had his first abode in 1760, is in a good state of preservation. Mr. Lear was for 16 years private secretary to George Washington, entered the President at this place in 1789. A tablet marks this as one of the most interesting houses in the city.

The Governor Langdon house, built in 1784 and one of the noted residences. It is the present home of Woodbury Langdon, Louis Phillips and his brothers were entertained here in 1780. It is said to be one of the finest specimens of colonial architecture in New England.

The Webster house, where Daniel Webster resided from 1818 to 1819, is the birthplace of T. B. Aldrich and is to be seen. Last year 2,000 visitors registered at the Aldrich place.

CUPPRESSING OBJECTIONABLE FILMS.

An attempt to force the police of New York by injunction to permit the screening of "The Inside of the White Star Traffic" appears to have failed through the refusal of the court to continue the injunction. Judge Cavegn in rendering his decision said that "at least parts of the exhibition tend to deprave and corrupt the morals of those whose minds are open to such influences." The mayor of Newark has prevented the display of the picture by revoking a license of Mount Vernon, N. J., revoked the license of a theatre which proposed to show the film drama "Traffic in Souls". There has recently been shown in Newport a picture of this general character and many of the current films on the market show a tendency toward these extremes.

FEATURES OF THE NEW YEAR'S EVE BALL.

Masonic hall has been transformed into a drawing room effect, with decorations, foliage and electrical gauds, for the New Year's eve ball. Pretty souvenirs have arrived to be distributed at midnight. To note the arrival of the new year special arrangements have been made to receive the official time from Washington through the Western Union Company, to be transferred to the hall by the Providence Telephone Company, when it will be announced and the electrical emblems thrown on.

CANDIDATES OR POSSIBLE CANDIDATES.

Former Alderman William P. Shepley states that he is to be in fact that he is a candidate for street commissioner. He apparently did not intend to run for the present incumbent, J. K. Sullivan, was to be learned, but he was endeavoring to learn, but he is running.

There has been some talk about Judge Burge having opposition for judge of probate and Mortimer A. Sullivan was mentioned as the opposition, but he has not yet announced his candidacy, and he does not state that he will. Neither does he say that he absolutely will not.

The name of Foreman William P. Dawley is heard in certain quarters as a candidate for the Board of Fire wards, but so far it can be learned that he has personally authorized its use.

STILL CATCHING COD.

Monday Captain Peterson of the Thomas B. Congdon was in with 4,000 pounds of cod. There were just three hundred in the catch. J. E. Clarke of Point Judith was also in, with 9 barrels of fish. He still has his trap in and is fishing to keep it in as long as the first in the spring, having the first catch on April 15. The other boats are out, and the fishing has been good. The thinking market outside have been turned in earnest and are cutting work in earnest and are cutting them out as fast as they can, but are behind their orders.

JAMESTOWN.

Harmonset, Mass., Dec. 29.—The final round in the first series of the "Clay" club at the "Clay" club on Monday evening, the club of copying the new quarters built by Mr. George D. Anthony on Knowles Court, 1, won 80, total 265; No. 3, won 82, by a wide margin. The scores: No. 1 took the round and the series to 211 No. 2, won 82, total 188. No. 3, won 82, total 188.

The work of covering in the Rousseaueau cottage on Shorehill Hill is nearly completed.

Mr. Robert W. Curry of Newport was on the island today.

Barney Blue Jeans and True Blue are tied up at the end of Ferry wharf for a harbor.

Mr. P. H. Clarke, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Susan Clarke, has returned to Boston.

Clay for the covering of the tennis courts at the Golf Club is being brought from Newport.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Captain Joe Patterson has left to sleep New A. Rowland for the quahog grounds off Nantucket.

—Miss Margaret Maher returned to New York Monday, after spending Christmas with relatives here.

—Mr. L. W. Collins of the Victor Talking Machine Company was a caller at Barney's music store today.

—Mr. and Mrs. Burrell S. Lewis quietly celebrated their golden wedding Saturday, at their home on Thames street.

—Mr. Alfred A. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell returned from Canada and Mrs. Campbell is visiting friends in Newport.

—Mr. David Rizer, who has been here spending Christmas with his wife and family, has returned to duty on battleship Delaware.

—From cards already displayed in shop windows it looks as though New Year's day would be more generally observed as a holiday than for some time past.

—A surprise party was given to Mr. Matthew Jonasson at his home on Lady street Monday evening. A large number of friends were present and the evening was spent with games, songs and dancing.

—Barry Harry Hudson Smith is in for the Plummer at Manchester, Conn. A large hall at the Newport Hotel company, and large Laura for the Bowen heirs, it looks as the local coal dealers were making ready for a severe winter.

—Twenty-five years ago today, December 30, 1888, steamer Bristol was burned at the end of the north dock, Long wharf. A year ago Monday the Weaver building was burned. It is a sort of anniversary about this time of the year.

—At the presentation of "Eager Heart," a mystery play, this Wednesday evenings at the Trinity guild hall by the young people of the church, there will be an orchestra and the first friendly society will sing carols connected with the play.

—Having taken out of "Woe Bush" all the fittings and shell of the house to Messrs. Randall and Weston, who will complete the demolition of the structure. The work of tearing down the stable in the rear is progressing.

—Captain Hanson is putting his water boat Mary Hanson, into winter quarters.

—The forecast of snow or rain for today missed fire, for the sun is shining and it will pass for a fine day, especially in the sun. The ice men are securing no consolation from this weather, as the ponds are not even skimmed over, though there have been some small rains. Even in the country the water is quite fine, and a white frost, this morning showed that the temperature was not much below 37 during the night.

—There was a curious automobile accident mix-up this noon at the corner of Forewell and Marlborough streets. The automobile was coming down Marlborough and the cyclist going north on Forewell. The chauffeur must have had his machine under good control, for he stopped without running down the cyclist, though he needed to go back to allow the cyclist to get his wheel. The rider was not hurt and did not even have a spoke of his wheels bent.

FISH TRIAL BEGINS.

New York Civil Engineer Charged With Arson on High Seas.

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—The trial of John Albert Fish, a civil engineer of New York and a Boer War veteran, on a charge of arson on the high seas, set for today in the federal court, was said to be the first under a statute governing such cases. The indictment alleges that Fish set fire to his auxiliary schooner yacht, the Santa, off Cape Cod, on the night of October 25, 1910. The yacht was destroyed.

Since his arrest in New York last September Fish has been at the under $10,000 bail. He claims that the first started after him from a cigarette butt from a stove, and that his first knowledge of it was when he was awakened by the crackling of the flames. Fish and two lady guests, his cousins, with the four members of the crew, escaped in their night clothes into a small boat and rowed ashore.

Fish, who was engaged in engineering work in South Africa at the outbreak of the Boer war, enlisted in the British army. During the war he was promoted to a captain in the Imperial Horse.

"DEFIANCE" NAME SELECTED.

Chosen for Yacht Under Construction at Bath Iron Works.

BATH, Maine, December 30.—"Defiance" is the name selected for the yacht to be built by the Bath Iron Works, a possible defender of the American cup next summer, according to word received from New York today. The name was selected after consideration of a number that had been proposed. George Owen, the designer, is better working on the preliminary plans and the first work on the craft will be commenced early next month.

SOME OPPOSE INVESTIGATION.

Congressional Inquiry of Calumet Copper Mine Strike Discussed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Congressional investigation of the Calumet copper mine strike was discussed at informal conference of members of the House today, and individual expressions indicated that some present agreed that no federal investigation was involved. Chairman Henry D. Ford of the committee on Education and Western Federation of Miners and Representative Mackinnon of Michigan are pressing for a federal inquiry.

STEAMER REPORTED.

HAARCONSET, Mass., Dec. 29.—A steamer, from Rotterdam via Halifax, was reported to have been sighted off New York 25 miles east of Sandy Hook at noon, with dock 8:30 a. m. Wednesday.

MORE TROUBLE IN SHELTON.

Another Clash Between Police, Silk Mill Strikers and Sympathizers.

SHELTON, Conn., Dec. 29.—Another clash between the police and strikers and their sympathizers during which a number of shots were fired, occurred here today in connection with the strike in the weave shop of the Blumenthal Company's silk mill.

Mrs. Mary Senash, a non-partisan, was struck by a revolver bullet, her wound will not prove fatal. Eight persons, two of them women, were arrested.

Eight strikers were arrested yesterday for rioting. As a detail of police was passing a tenement house, near the mill, occupied by a number of families of strikers, women began to throw hot water, ashes and all sorts of other stuff on the officers. The police charged into the house, but were met with a stiff resistance. Strikers and others outside took part in the attack on them, and for a time the officers had uphill work. After a hard struggle, during which a dozen or more shots were fired, the police made eight rioters prisoners.

Mrs. Senash lived some distance from the mill and had accompanied her son to the mill gates to see that no harm came to him. She was on her way home when hit.

NEW BASILICA SOLEMNIZED.

Commemorates Recognition of Christian Faith by Constantine.

ROME, Dec. 30.—The new basilica of the Holy Cross, to commemorate the sixteenth century of the recognition of the Christian faith by the Roman emperor, Constantine, the final Francis De Paolo Cassella, in the presence of many high church dignitaries. The basilica was erected in 10 months by the Roman architect, Aristide Leonardi. It is 180 feet long, 90 feet wide and 100 feet high.

The United States took a prominent place among the sovereign countries that contributed to the cost. The high altar was given by Rev. John O'Brien, as the result of a subscription amounting to $25,225 collected by the Sacred Heart Review of the town, of which he is editor. The altar complies a costly bronze cross 10 feet high and weighing four tons. There is besides an immense American coat of arms above the main door, a gift from New York.

Cardinal Giacomo Paleolo, formerly apostolic delegate in the United States, will celebrate the first mass in the basilica next week.

WORK FURNISHED SOME.

San Francisco's Funds for Feeding the Unemployed Exhausted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—City funds for feeding the unemployed here have been exhausted. The question of taking care of men out of work was considered at a conference attended by Mayor James D. Phelan, Jr., and members of the board of supervisors. It was reported to the supervisors that nearly 1,000 men had arrived in San Francisco Sunday, after the announcement that the city was to provide work for the unemployed for four hours' work. An arrangement was also made that railroad laborers who had been working eight and ten hours for street railway and other corporations had been cutting jobs with the city.

An effort is to be made to care for a limited number of the men by furnishing work, but if they continue to arrive by the hundreds, as they have within the last few days, the city authorities say they are at a loss as to just how they are going to face the situation.

MRS. MCDORMICK ACTIVE.

More Aggressive Campaign in Suffrage Movement Promised.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—A more aggressive campaign to secure the adoption of an amendment to the constitution, giving women of the country the right to vote, is promised now that the new and more commodious headquarters have just been obtained here by the Congressional committee of the National Woman's Suffrage Association.

Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago, who recently accepted the chairmanship of the committee, is now in Washington, prepared to push the fight for "votes for women." Women suffragists throughout the country have to be kept fully informed as to the latest developments here in the plan to secure a constitutional amendment.

Mrs. McCormick is the daughter of the late Senator Mark Hanna of Ohio and has taken a prominent part in the suffrage movement in Illinois for several years.

SAID TO BE DISINHERITED.

ROME, Dec. 30.—Duke Francesco of Campello, who is said to have been disinherited by his uncle, the late Cardinal Rampolla, has asked the authorities to make an inventory of the estate of the dead prelate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 29.—Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman from Indiana, was elected his support in a sweeping victory in the district convention throughout the district yesterday, when every man elected to a chairmanship was a Taggart sympathizer. The Democratic state committee will meet here to reorganize January 8.

War Department Approves McNamara's Forcing Federalists Back.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—War Department officials approve the action of Major McNamara, commanding the border patrol at Presidio, Texas, in forcing into Mexico Federal soldiers who sought safety on the American side after they had been routed from Ojinaga by the rebel forces last night. That phase of the situation is not regarded as serious, although the constant escape of Mexican soldiers across the border into Texas causes no little annoyance to the border patrol. As the river may be forded at almost any point, fleeing soldiers frequently drop their arms and walk across.

WISHES NO EXECUTIVE OFFICE.
W. Cameron Forbes Will Not Become Police Commissioner of New York.

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—W. Cameron Forbes, governor general of the Philippines, declined today that he would not accept the position of police commissioner of New York, nor would he accept any position of an executive nature. Mr. Forbes said this noon that he had not seen Mayor Hiram W. Taft, who was reported to be on his way here in behalf of Mayor-elect Mitchell to order him the police commissioner.

RECEIVERS NAMED FOR THE SIEGLE STORES.

Henry Siegel & Company of New York is the buying agent for the other stores, and the Merchants' Express Company is the organization that moves the goods handled by the other stores.

Simpson-Crawford Company is capitalized at $1,400,000, and the Fourteenth Street Store and Henry Siegel Company of Boston are capitalized at $1,000,000 each. The local store has been in operation about nine years.

George R. Nutter, one of the attorneys for the petitioners, stated that neither Mr. Marble nor Mr. Shephard has ever had any connection with any of the concerns involved. "These concerns," said Mr. Nutter, "have been accustomed to a large line of banking credit, which had been very much curtailed lately. This proceeding was brought for the purpose of holding together and conserving the assets of all the different corporations, with a view to a prompt re-organization. Such a re-organization will be carried forward to a speedy conclusion as possible."

According to counsel in the case, from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000 is involved in the proceedings. The liabilities of the store here are estimated between $1,000,000 and $1,200,000.

STILL WITH BROOKLYN CLUB.
Ebbets' Son Says No Move Yet.
Be Made as to Tinker's Action.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—In the absence of President Ebbets of the Brooklyn Club, his son, Charles Ebbets, Jr., stated today that the board of directors would not make a move at the present time regarding the action of Tinker in signing a contract with the Chicago Federal League Club. President Ebbets is in Porto Rico for his annual vacation and will not return until January 20. Mr. Ebbets, speaking for the Brooklyn Club, said no official information had been received from either Tinker or the Cincinnati club to the effect that the short stop had signed with the Federal League.

"Until Tinker refuses to live up to his contract," said Mr. Ebbets, "the Brooklyn club will consider him a regularly enrolled member of the club. I cannot state at this time what action the board of directors will take in case such a contingency arises later. The playing season is more than three months away and many things can happen in that time. Tinker may regard his Brooklyn contract as a very desirable agreement by April 15."

The signing of Tinker and Brown with the Federal League has renewed the discussion in base ball circles regarding the legality of the National League. The present form of National League base ball contract containing this clause was drawn up by John Conway Toole, an attorney of this city. His views are given in a statement published here today. He said:

"The reserve clause, so called, in the base ball contract is nothing new or strange in the law of contracts. It is merely the application of well established legal principles to a new situation. The essentials of a contract briefly are: 1—Parties competent to agree on and 2—a sufficient consideration for the bargain."

"We have all these requisites when a base ball manager and a player get together and agree on terms. If, as part of a contract of service for this year, in base ball or in selling goods, a man gives to the employer an option on his time for next year is it anything unusual? Not at all."

"The present contract goes beyond that, however, and specifically provides that a portion of the salary agreed to be paid to the player is to be regarded as direct consideration for the privilege granted to the club of reserving the player."

"The contract will stand the test in court or elsewhere, you may be sure," Mr. Toole was former President of the Thomas J. Lynch's legal advisor in the Horace Fugel case a year ago and is attorney for the Boston National League Club.

KANSAS FARMERS TOO RICH
Exodus to the Cities Greatly Depopulating the Rural Districts.

Kansas is studying with something like dismay the figures of recent population statistics which show that the cities of the state are steadily growing larger while the number of inhabitants of the rural districts is decreasing. Ten years ago 34 per cent of all the people of the state were living in the cities, now 39 per cent are in the cities. In the population statistics a town of less than 1000 inhabitants is regarded as a rural community, while those of more than 1,000 are in the city class.

The fact that nearly 40 per cent of the Kansas population is already in the cities and that the country districts continue to lose and the cities to gain, even in years when Kansas fell off in total population, is worrying all over the state. The state, Kansas, is almost purely agricultural, containing only those large towns necessary for the convenient handling of business.

"The exodus of the farmers to the towns is becoming so general that it is the exception and not the rule to find a farm home for the owner in some parts of Kansas," said P. D. Coburn, secretary of the state board of agriculture. "It takes the farm owner to keep up the farm. The average tenant is careless and soon lets the property run down."

One of the chief causes of this exodus to the cities is that the farmers have so much money that they do not know what to do with it. The present year may work for a change because of the unusual season, that will cut the Kansas crop down and has materially reduced the hay and forage crops.

WHIRLWINDS OBTAIN LEAD.

First Place Secured in Feature Race of Recreation League Events.

After several weeks of fruitless attempts the Whirlwinds, who up to Monday evening had remained within a point and a half of the leading Monsoons team, finally took the lead in the Recreation League at the Young Men's Christian Association, while the Monsoons scored but seven.

At present the Monsoons are but a game and a half behind the leaders, and with the Tomatoes coming strong the Whirlwinds lead is not at all secure.

Several of the teams are increasing their lead, the Oax and Monrovia, defeated the Tomatoes, with Sullivan, Reynolds, Barnes, Leonard and Buchanan.

The Cyclone team, represented by Holmes, Jacobs, Thomas, Stokes and Elm, had little trouble in outdistancing the Hurricanes, with W. Thompson, O'Hearn, G. Thompson, C. Eddy and Lantz.

Underwood, Campbell, Chase, Wylie and Tollefson, running for the Monrovia, defeated the Cyclones, and in the feature race of the evening, the Whirlwinds defeated the Monsoons taking first place for the first time.

This race caused the greatest excitement as the winner took the first position in the league.

In the relay race the Whirlwinds, with O'Hearn, Hazard, Reynolds, Oax and Monrovia, defeated the Tomatoes, with Sullivan, Reynolds, Barnes, Leonard and Buchanan.
